

Beyond Coffee Mugs and Posters

---

COMMUNICATING AND REINFORCING ORGANIZATIONAL VALUES

A solid green horizontal bar at the bottom of the slide.

How are the posters working out for you?

DESPAIR®

The posters (alone) never worked for me!

---

Cheree Aspelin

- Vice President Talent, Performance and Culture
- NielsenIQ
- 20+ years as an internal performance consultant
- Former Chief Diversity Officer

Why aren't people doing what we expected them to do?

---

We'll cover...

- Behavioral science applied to organizational goals
- Six behavior influences and how they can translate into real change
- Consulting with leaders

Performance Consulting

Teller Trouble

---

Behavioral Influences Diagnostic

1. Expectations <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Roles/responsibilities clearly defined in writing?</li> <li>• Supervisor verbally set expectations, checked for understanding and consistently re-sets expectations?</li> <li>• Supervisor meets regularly with the team to restate expectations and give feedback on team performance?</li> <li>• Supervisor meets regularly one on one with team members to restate expectations and give feedback on individual performance?</li> </ul>	2. Resources <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Can the task be simplified?</li> <li>• Can we provide a performance aid?</li> <li>• Can we redesign the workplace or provide physical help?</li> <li>• Can we parcel off the job to someone else or arrange a job swap?</li> <li>• Does something get in the way of doing it the right way? Bad systems? Confusing policies?</li> </ul>	3. Consequences <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• What are the consequences of performing as desired? Is it actually punishing or perceived as punishing to do the right thing?</li> <li>• Is undesired performance rewarding? What rewards, prestige, status, or comfort supports the current way of doing things? Does misbehaving get more attention than doing it right?</li> <li>• Are there any consequences at all? Does desired performance lead to consequences that the performer sees as favorable?</li> </ul>
4. Skills <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Is it a skill deficiency?</li> <li>• Could they do it if they really had to (if their lives depended on it)?</li> <li>• Could they once perform the task but have forgotten how?</li> <li>• Is the skill used often?</li> </ul>	5. Ability <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Is it likely that this team/person could learn to do the job as desired?</li> <li>• Does this team/person lack the physical or mental potential to perform as desired?</li> <li>• Is this team/person over-qualified for this job?</li> </ul>	6. Beliefs <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• What filters are in place that are forming the persons beliefs, values and attitudes?</li> <li>• What is impacting the filters?</li> <li>• What beliefs, values and attitudes are reinforced by others? In particular address messages sent by the supervisor, leadership, peers, family, etc?</li> </ul>

Expectations & Resources

---

1. Expectations

- Roles/responsibilities clearly defined in writing?
- Supervisor verbally set expectations, checked for understanding and consistently re-sets expectations?
- Supervisor meets regularly with the team to restate expectations and give feedback on team performance?
- Supervisor meets regularly one on one with team members to restate expectations and give feedback on individual performance?

2. Resources

- Can the task be simplified?
- Can we provide a performance aid?
- Can we redesign the workplace or provide physical help?
- Can we parcel off the job to someone else or arrange a job swap?
- Does something get in the way of doing it the right way? Bad systems? Confusing policies?

Consequences & Skill

---

3. Consequences

- What are the consequences of performing as desired? Is it actually punishing or perceived as punishing to do the right thing?
- Is undesired performance rewarding? What rewards, prestige, status, or comfort supports the current way of doing things? Does misbehaving get more attention than doing it right?
- Are there any consequences at all? Does desired performance lead to consequences that the performer sees as favorable?

4. Skills

- Is it a skill deficiency?
- Could they do it if they really had to (if their lives depended on it)?
- Could they once perform the task but have forgotten how?
- Is the skill used often?

Ability & Beliefs

---

5. Ability

- Is it likely that this team/person could learn to do the job as desired?
- Does this team/person lack the physical or mental potential to perform as desired?
- Is this team/person over-qualified for this job?

6. Beliefs

- What filters are in place that are forming the persons beliefs, values and attitudes?
- What is impacting the filters?
- What beliefs, values and attitudes are reinforced by others? In particular address messages sent by the supervisor, leadership, peers, family, etc?

What's on your mind?

Apply It: Treat Others with Respect

---

Expectations	Resources	Consequences
Skills	Ability	Beliefs

DEI is Behavior Change

---

Behavior is “video-tapable”

What Leaders Want

---

What Gets Results

---

Expectations	Resources	Consequences
Leader Owned
Skills	Ability	Beliefs
Employee Dependent Influenced By Leader's Ownership ↑

Consulting with Leaders

What's on your mind?

Thank You