The screenshot displays the Bonusly mobile application interface. At the top, there are navigation tabs for Home, Rewards, Awards, and Analytics, along with a search icon and a user profile picture. The main content area features a recognition post from user @jean.jambalaya, which includes fields for Recipient, Amount, Hashtag, and Public status. Below the post is a 'Give recognition' button. To the right, a 'Dot summary' section shows 820 Givable points and 1,520 Redeemable points, with a 'Shop rewards' button. Below this is a 'Rewards you might like' section featuring logos for Everytown for Gun Safety, WWF, IHop, and Airbnb. At the bottom, a 'Trending' section highlights the hashtag #get-results with 192 mentions. A post from user Giovanna Rotini is also visible, showing a '+20' reward and a thank-you message with a video thumbnail.
